Have your say on the protection of public spaces from anti-social behaviour arising from dogs

The Council is seeking the views of Mid Devon residents on the proposed strengthening of dog control powers to reduce anti-social behaviour arising from dogs.

A consultation on a Public Spaces Protection Order (PSPO), is being held between Friday 21st May and Friday 18th June and pending the views of the public, could be in place for the next three years.

Tiverton market links up with top local companies to launch 'Ice Cream Saturdays

Visitors to Tiverton Pannier Market can enjoy ice cream served from an iconic, 70-year-old Citroen HY van this summer – after the historic town centre venue agreed an exciting link-up with three leading local companies.

'Ice Cream Saturdays' will launch on 5 June, when Willand-based Bonne Bouche brings its stylish, refurbished van named Margaux to the market.
